Remember all of our deceased loved ones in your prayers

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Happy Ascension and Mother's Day!

It is not often in our calendars – civil and liturgical – that these two very important days occur and are celebrated on the same date. But first and foremost, a happy and blessed solemnity of the Ascension to everyone; may the risen and ascended Lord bless us with the gifts of the Spirit from the Father. Amen

Secondly, a very happy and joyful day to all mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers in our tri-parish area. Today, in a special manner we acknowledge and thank you for your many and selfless sacrifices borne for the sake of the lives of all your children. These sacrifices are evident not only in the human, but also in the spiritual and religious aspects of your children's lives. We salute you and pray that you continue to experience the joy and the sense of fulfillment in the good work that you have accomplished. HAPPY MOTHERS DAY!!!

The Ascension of the Lord, which marked the final departure of Jesus from the disciples, was also a call to the apostles that it is now time for them to carry on the Master's mission of building the new kingdom of God.

In other words, as the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles makes clear, the apostles are to go on and be witnesses to the resurrection of Christ and preach in his name. Obviously, the task was not going to be accomplished in one day.

In the same way, while we set aside a special day to celebrate mothers, we all know that, true motherhood never really ends – it continues to be manifested lovingly under various circumstances as time goes on in the life of children. Hence, for sons and daughters, holding mothers in high regard and thanking God for what they have done is not a one day affair, but is and should be an ongoing exercise of honor and respect for them.

As the solemnity of the Ascension today reminds us of our calling to be witnesses of the good news, may our celebration of Mother's Day also reawaken in us our obligation to always honor our mothers.

Have a blessed week everyone!

Fr. Bernardine

If at first you don't succeed, try doing it the way mom told you to in the beginning!

Famous last Words

*Toward the end of Jesus' earthly ministry it became inevitable: Jesus would physically be taken from their midst. What would happen to this movement so recently begun? If it was to be carried on with power, the little band of disciples stood in special need of prayer. So Jesus offered the High Priestly Prayer, and asked God to grant them the same marks of the Spirit we need today. In that prayer Jesus stressed three things, First, He wanted them to know the Christian Gospel, not simply as a pretty story, but as God's truth. Second, He prayed for them to be ready to bear witness to that truth by testifying in all areas of life.
Finally, He desired they be a people who find joy by fulfilling God's call.*
