Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Take and Eat, Take and Drink!!!

These words from the lips of Jesus are some of the most important and very personal ones there are in the scriptures. In them, the Savior invites his disciples to eat his body and drink his blood in the Holy Eucharist. Today in a special way we are enjoined to reflect again on the central and unique place of this sacrament in our spiritual and community lives as Catholics.

Like the celebration of the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity last weekend, not surprisingly there are volumes that have been written about the Holy Eucharist. For this space, we again turn to a few paragraphs from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

“The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: ‘Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation.’ (CCC, 1376)

“The Eucharist is ‘the source and summit of the Christian life.’ ‘The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch.’ (CCC, 1324)

‘The miracles of the multiplication of the loaves, when the Lord says the blessing, breaks and distributes the loaves through his disciples to feed the multitude, prefigure the superabundance of this unique bread of his Eucharist. The sign of water turned into wine at Cana already announces the Hour of Jesus’ glorification. It makes manifest the fulfillment of the wedding feast in the Father’s kingdom, where the faithful will drink the new wine that has become the Blood of Christ.(CCC, 1335)

“The inexhaustible richness of this sacrament is expressed in the different names we give it. Each name evokes certain aspects of it. It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God. The Greek words eucharistein and eulogein recall the Jewish blessings that proclaim – especially during a meal – God’s works: creation, redemption, and sanctification.”(CCC, 1328) Other names include ‘the Lord’s supper’, ‘the breaking of bread’, etc (CCC, 1329)

May this Eucharistic food continue to be our spiritual nourishment and preparation for eternal life. Amen.

Have a blessed week everyone!

It will be in the school cafeteria immediately following mass.

Please keep the following graduates in your prayers as they prepare to take the next step in their life's journey:
Chandler Poole & Jennifer Valdez
Congrats to both of you!

Corpus Christi

When we receive communion and hear the words, "The Body of Christ," we receive, we accept Jesus' true blood and flesh. But what about His other body? Have we accepted the body of Christ, the parish community around us - these people with their weaknesses, their sins, their differences? Will we accept this body and heal it, feed it, care for it and cherish it? When you accept Him, can you accept this body of Christ too?

This is a great time of year to enjoy these things but remember, we are still here at the church and the bills must be paid!

Don't forget the church during the summer months!

The women of the parish will be cooking & serving up a delicious breakfast on Sunday, June 17th to honor the dads of the parish. Everyone is invited. Come and enjoy food & fellowship in the school cafeteria immediately following the 10 am mass.

The Council of Trent (1551) provides the depth of understanding we need to fully appreciate the Eucharist: “In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist, the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ, and therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really and substantially contained.” This presence is called real because it is the presence is the fullest. It does not negate the presence of Christ in the Word, the celebrant, or the assembly. (CCC# 1374)

EWTN Airs Documentary on the Florida Martyrs

On June 6, at 10:00 p.m., famed "Miracle Hunter" Michael O'Neill's original EWTN series They Might Be Saints will air a special one-hour episode on the courageous and heroic witnesses who gave their lives for the Catholic faith during the Spanish missionary period. This episode of “They Might Be Saints” was filmed on location at various sites in Florida and includes interviews with expert witnesses including Bishop Estévez. Before the episode’s debut on June 6, Father Mitch Pacwa will have as his guests on EWTN Live at 8:00 p.m. Father Len Plazewski, vice-postulator for the Florida Martyrs cause and Heather Jordan, who serves on the Board of the Martyrs of La Florida Missions, Inc.
