Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Hearts and Lips

After a refreshing sojourn through the sixth chapter of John's gospel, we return to our reading of Mark's. And I think it is an auspicious transition from "It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is of no avail", from last Sunday's gospel to "This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me", in today's passage. Some would refer to this disparity between what the lips express and what is in the heart as "eye or lip service". Jesus calls for the fulfillment of the law and an "integral observance" of the commandments.

Several paragraphs from the Catechism address this situation and others like it between Jesus and the Pharisees and scribes:

"This principle of integral observance of the Law not only in letter but in spirit was dear to the Pharisees. By giving Israel this principle they had led many Jews of Jesus' time to an extreme religious zeal. This zeal, were it not to lapse into 'hypocritical' casuistry, could only prepare the People for the unprecedented intervention of God through the perfect fulfillment of the Law by the only Righteous One in place of all sinners. (CCC, 579)

"The perfect fulfillment of the Law could be the work of none but the divine legislator, born subject to the Law in the person of the Son. In Jesus, the Law no longer appears engraved on tables of stone but 'upon the heart' of the Servant who becomes 'a covenant to the people', because he will 'faithfully bring forth justice'. Jesus fulfills the Law to the point of taking upon himself 'the curse of the Law' incurred by those who do not 'abide by the things written in the book of the Law, and do them', for his death took place to redeem them 'from the transgressions under the first covenant'. (CCC, 580)

"Going even further, Jesus perfects the dietary law, so important in Jewish daily life, by revealing its pedagogical meaning through a divine interpretation: 'Whatever goes into a man from outside cannot defile him. .. (Thus he declared all foods clean.)... What comes out of a man is what defiles a man. For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts. ..' In presenting with divine authority the definitive interpretation of the Law, Jesus found himself confronted by certain teachers of the Law who did not accept his interpretation of the Law, guaranteed though it was by the divine signs that accompanied it. This was the case especially with the sabbath laws, for he recalls, often with rabbinical arguments, that the sabbath rest is not violated by serving God and neighbor, which his own healings did." (CCC, 582)

It is not uncommon today for people to use euphemistic and palatable language words to try describe what is inherently evil.

Have a blessed week everyone! And Happy Labor Day!!

LABOR DAY Monday, September 3rd

The office will be closed in observance of this day.

Have a Relaxing & Safe Day!

Holy Rosary's Fundraising Raffle tickets are now available. Each ticket is $25 dollars. There is a 1st, 2nd & 3rd place drawing each month for 12 consecutive months. Every ticket will be entered into each month's drawings regardless of how many times it has previously been drawn. Only 500 tickets will be sold. The drawings will begin the 1st Sunday after the last ticket is sold and then the 1st Sunday of every month for the 12 months. Most importantly, the monies made from this raffle will generate $5300 for our parish. Remember, until all 500 tickets are sold and the monies & stubs are turned in, the drawings cannot begin. We need more participation from everyone to help sell tickets so the drawings can begin. These tickets must ALL be sold before the drawings can take place. Please see Claudia for any questions you might have. If you took tickets to sell and have sold them, please return the stubs & money to Claudia. If you have tickets you cannot sell, return those too. Hopefully you will sell all you have and will need more!

The Heart of the Matter

So many people today are troubled by the state of our world. But just what is the source of the problem? That question gets a variety of answers. Some would say that our troubles originate in evil social conditions. Others blame heredity: Still others believe it's a cruel fate. All of these answers share one thing in common: they are all external. Christian faith recognizes that outer conditions make the Christian life difficult. But Christian faith also encourages us to go beyond fixing our outward problems and encourages us to look inside ourselves. Until we deal with our motives, we really are not really dealing with the heart of the matter.

There will NO
Adoration of the Eucharist
on Monday September 3rd
