Remember all of our deceased loved ones in your prayers

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Prayer, Signs and Faith

Today's gospel features a coming together in one encounter with Jesus, three very important themes in the scriptures. Not surprisingly, immediate attention falls on the healing of Bartimaeus and the restoration of his sight. But before that, is his persistent prayer to which Jesus responded; prayer that was solidly founded on faith, which Jesus also acknowledged and praised. While not everyone may experience signs in the way Bartimaeus did, either directly or indirectly, none can lay claim to a relationship with God without faith and prayer. Here are a few paragraphs from the Catechism on these three themes:

“The signs worked by Jesus attest that the Father has sent him. They invite belief in him.¹ To those who turn to him in faith, he grants what they ask. So miracles strengthen faith in the One who does his Father’s works; they bear witness that he is the Son of God. But his miracles can also be occasions for ‘offence’; they are not intended to satisfy people’s curiosity or desire for magic. Despite his evident miracles some people reject Jesus; he is even accused of acting by the power of demons. (CCC, 548)

“By freeing some individuals from the earthly evils of hunger, injustice, illness and death, Jesus performed messianic signs. Nevertheless he did not come to abolish all evils here below, but to free men from the gravest slavery, sin, which thwarts them in their vocation as God’s sons and causes all forms of human bondage. (CCC, 549)

“Prayer to Jesus is answered by him already during his ministry, through signs that anticipate the power of his death and Resurrection: Jesus hears the prayer of faith, expressed in words (the leper, Jairus, the Canaanite woman, the good thief) or in silence (the bearers of the paralytic, the woman with a hemorrhage who touches his clothes, the tears and ointment of the sinful woman). The urgent request of the blind men, ‘Have mercy on us, Son of David’ or ‘Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!’ has-been renewed in the traditional prayer to Jesus known as the Jesus Prayer: ‘Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner!’ Healing infirmities or forgiving sins, Jesus always responds to a prayer offered in faith: ‘Your faith has made you well; go in peace.’ St. Augustine wonderfully summarizes the three dimensions of Jesus’ prayer: ‘He prays for us as our priest, prays in us as our Head, and is prayed to by us as our God. Therefore let us acknowledge our voice in him and his in us.’(CCC, 2616)

Have a blessed week everyone!

Fr. Bernardine

True Blindness

The story of blind Bartimaeus is a powerful account of Jesus' compassion on human need. Bartimaeus knew who to ask for help and what kind of help to request. And still having found the Master and made his request, Bartimaeus had another step to make. Jesus told him, "it is your faith that has healed you." Without that step of faith, Bartimaeus would still be blind, even after his eyes were open. You see, God is more concerned with what our hearts see, than what we do with our eyes. Because it is our hearts that keep us on the path to His Kingdom. When our hearts have clear vision, we can follow the Savior wherever he leads. When those hearts are blind, we will stumble and fall, no matter how clear we think our path is. When you read Bartimaeus' story, stop and ask yourself, do I need Jesus to heal my blindness too? Then go and find your master, profess your faith and wait for His healing touch.

The faithful, in order to receive the Eucharist worthily, observe the local fast, use bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) that display not only solemnity but joy in the moment of reception. The Church obligates the faithful to take part in the Liturgy on Sundays and holy days, but encourages participation daily. The faithful are prepared for the Eucharist by the sacrament of reconciliation. (CCC#1387-1389)

Para prepararse convenientemente a recibir la Eucaristía, los fieles deben observar el ayuno prescrito por la Iglesia. Por la actitud corporal (gestos, vestidos) se manifiesta el respeto, la solemnidad, el gozo de ese momento en que Cristo se hace nuestro huésped. La iglesia obliga a los fieles a participar los domingos y días de fiesta en la divina liturgia, pero exhorta a la participación diaria.
