Remember all of our deceased loved ones in your prayers

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Two Becoming One Body

The institution of marriage has undergone and continues to face huge challenges in modern society whether looked at from a purely civil perspective or religious considerations. Recently, we have had instances of murder-suicides in families involving husbands, wives and children. Such occurrences and others continue to damage the oneness and unity that marriage is supposed to represent.

As today's gospel suggests, even though we live in a far different time, marriages have always faced a variety of difficulties. But none is beyond the grace and mercy of the One, who from the beginning made them male and female. From the Catechism, here are few paragraphs on the sacrament of marriage:

"The parties to a marriage covenant are a baptized man and woman, free to contract marriage, who freely express their consent; 'to be free' means: – not being under constraint; – not impeded by any natural or ecclesiastical law. (CCC, 1625)

"The consent by which the spouses mutually give and receive one another is sealed by God himself. From their covenant arises 'an institution, confirmed by the divine law, . . . even in the eyes of society.' The covenant between the spouses is integrated into God's covenant with man: 'Authentic married love is caught up into divine love.'(CCC, 1639)

"Today there are numerous Catholics in many countries who have recourse to civil divorce and contract new civil unions. In fidelity to the words of Jesus Christ – 'Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery' the Church maintains that a new union cannot be recognized as valid, if the first marriage was. If the divorced are remarried civilly, they find themselves in a situation that objectively contravenes God's law. Consequently, they cannot receive Eucharistic communion as long as this situation persists. For the same reason, they cannot exercise certain ecclesial responsibilities. Reconciliation through the sacrament of Penance can be granted only to those who have repented for having violated the sign of the covenant and of fidelity to Christ, and who are committed to living in complete continence. (CCC, 1650)

"The married couple forms 'the intimate partnership of life and love established by the Creator and governed by his laws; it is rooted in the conjugal covenant, that is, in their irrevocable personal consent.' Both give themselves definitively and totally to one another. They are no longer two; from now on they form one flesh. The covenant they freely contracted imposes on the spouses the obligation to preserve it as unique and indissoluble. .What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder.' (CCC, 2364)

"The Lord Jesus insisted on the original intention of the Creator who willed that marriage be indissoluble. He abrogates the accommodations that had slipped into the old Law. Between the baptized, 'a ratified and consummated marriage cannot be dissolved by any human power or for any reason other than death.'(CCC, 2382)

Have a blessed week everyone!

Fr. Bernardine

Holy Rosary's Fundraising Raffle tickets are now available. Each ticket is $25 dollars. There is a 1st, 2nd & 3rd place drawing each month for 12 consecutive months. Every ticket will be entered into each month's drawings regardless of how many times it has previously been drawn. Only 500 tickets will be sold. The drawings will begin the 1st Sunday after the last ticket is sold and then the 1st Sunday of every month for the 12 months. Most importantly, the monies made from this raffle will generate $5300 for our parish.

We need to get all of the tickets sold so that the church doesn't just break even! We need everyone to participate in helping to reach our goal. Please see Claudia for any questions you might have. If you took tickets to sell and have sold them, please return the stubs & money to Claudia. If you have tickets you cannot sell, return those too. Hopefully you will sell all you have and will need more!

Let Them Come

The Pharisees were trouble-makers. Their greatest pleasure was to question Jesus on legalistic issues. In Mark 10:2-16, they test Jesus on the question of divorce. Jesus granted that the law of Moses allowed for divorce, although this was not God's desire for His people. God wants harmony and reconciliation between people, not discord and division. Later in the passage, children came to Jesus, but the disciples tried to chase them away: Jesus said, "Let them come." This is what Jesus says to all those who wonder if they have any value or worth: "Let them come." Let children come. Let divorced people come. Everyone is welcome. What God has given them, namely Jesus, let none of us take away.

The school is taking orders for their Cookie Dough Fundraiser. There will be someone in the back the next couple of Sundays to take your order. Please consider purchasing something to help the school. Not everything is cookie dough. There is a variety of goodies to choose from .

Please take and read the bulletin each week. We are already into the month of October and before you can blink an eye it will be Christmas! Information on important events and service schedules will be in the bulletin as well as the parish app & website. These are the best ways to stay informed. Of course you can always call the office. If you have any questions or concerns, please see Claudia.

Christians gather in one place for the Eucharist. Christ himself is the principal agent of the Eucharist and he presides invisibly over the celebration. The bishop or priest acting in the person of Christ, the head (persona Christi capitis) leads the assembly, gives the homily, receives the offertory, and says the Eucharistic Prayer. Everyone present, however, have their own part to play in the celebration, culminating with a community amen. (CCC#1348)

Los cristianos se reúnen en un lugar para la Eucaristía. Cristo es el actor principal de la Eucaristía y preside invisiblemente toda la celebración. El obispo o presbítero actuando en persona de Cristo, la cabeza (persona Christi capitis) preside la asamblea, da la homilía después de las lecturas, recibe el ofertorio, y dice la plegaria eucarística. Todos los presentes, sin embargo, tienen parte activa en la celebración, y se culmina con el Amen comunitario. (CIC # 1348)
