Remember all of our deceased loved ones in your prayers

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Pray! Pray!! Pray!!!

There is a song very popular among Christians of all denominations in my home country of Nigeria. It runs: “Prayer is the key (2x), Prayer is the master key. Jesus started with prayer, and ended with prayer. Prayer is the master key.” The apostles observed Jesus at prayer many times in the course of his ministry. Jesus also asked them to pray, and as we see in today’s gospel, taught them to pray. No relationship with God can be sustained without prayer.

For this reason, there is a lot about prayer in the Catechism from which we present a few paragraphs:

“Jesus ‘was praying at a certain place, and when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.” In response to this request the Lord entrusts to his disciples and to his Church the fundamental Christian prayer. St. Luke presents a brief text of five petitions, while St. Matthew gives a more developed version of seven petitions. The liturgical tradition of the Church has retained St. Matthew’s text: (CCC, 2759)

““He was praying in a certain place and when he had ceased, one of his disciples said to him, ‘Lord, teach us to pray.’” In seeing the Master at prayer the disciple of Christ also wants to pray. By contemplating and hearing the Son, the master of prayer, the children learn to pray to the Father.(CCC, 2601)

“Christian petition is centered on the desire and search for the Kingdom to come, in keeping with the teaching of Christ. There is a hierarchy in these petitions: we pray first for the Kingdom, then for what is necessary to welcome it and cooperate with its coming. This collaboration with the mission of Christ and the Holy Spirit, which is now that of the Church, is the object of the prayer of the apostolic community. It is the prayer of Paul, the apostle par excellence, which reveals to us how the divine solicitude for all the churches ought to inspire Christian prayer. By prayer every baptized person works for the coming of the Kingdom.(CCC, 2632)

“The traditional form of petition to the Holy Spirit is to invoke the Father through Christ our Lord to give us the Consoler Spirit. Jesus insists on this petition to be made in his name at the very moment when he promises the gift of the Spirit of Truth. But the simplest and most direct prayer is also traditional, “Come, Holy Spirit,” and every liturgical tradition has developed it in antiphons and hymns. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love. Heavenly King, Consoler Spirit, Spirit of Truth, present everywhere and filling all things, treasure of all good and source of all life, come dwell in us, cleanse and save us, you who are All Good.” (CCC, 2671)

Have a blessed week everyone!

Fr. Bernardine

It's What You Mean that Counts

The priest of a small parish took a long deserved retreat. As the substitute priest began his sermon, he said "You know, a substitute pastor is like a piece of cardboard in a broken window. He fills the space, but after all, he's not the real glass." He then proceeded with his sermon. After the service, a lady approached him trying to pay him a compliment by saying, "You weren't a replacement after all."

Are You Asking Enough?

One of the hardest lessons in prayer is ask enough. We're afraid to seem greedy or selfish, so we ask for less, and we ask less often, than our heavenly Father wants us to.

We forget that the Father expects us to expect great things from him. We remain doubtful, hesitant, not allowing our hopes to build up for fear of disappointment. We ask for a thimble full of water and all he knows how to give is an ocean. We lack the abandon of the child within us. The child throws itself, arms open wide, into the embrace of the one it trusts. The child expects his provident care, expects to rest in the shadow of his outstretched arms. This week, pray believing in God's infinite mercy and generosity. Be willing to ask for what you need, all you need, as long as you need. Our Father's ability to give will overwhelm you.
