PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

As followers of Jesus, we at Holy Rosary Parish, seek to be a living community with respect for different persons and personalities. Attuned to the will of God by example of faith, worship, and prayer, we will work together toward the common goal of a loving, sharing, forgiving community that would, in itself, draw the interest of others into our Church community!

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Sharing Communion

Depending on who you talk to or listen to, you will hear different opinions on the covid pandemic. For some, circumstances are just as bad as they were this time one year ago; for others things have greatly Improved and we can basically return to normal, and for some we just have to learn to deal with the virus like we do other ailments and diseases. But the one thing I am certain everyone can agree on is this: the human spirit of kindness and sharing with those in need is very much alive. As Christians, Communion sharing, is essential to our faith expression materially and spiritually.

“In the primitive community of Jerusalem, the disciples ‘devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of the bread and the prayers.’ Communion in the faith. The faith of the faithful is the faith of the Church, received from the apostles. Faith is a treasure of life which is enriched by being shared. (CCC, 949)

“Communion of the sacraments. ‘The fruit of all the sacraments belongs to all the faithful. All the sacraments are sacred links uniting the faithful with one another and binding them to Jesus Christ, and above all Baptism, the gate by which we enter into the Church. The communion of saints must be understood as the communion of the sacraments. . . . The name ‘communion’ can be applied to all of them, for they unite us to God. . . . But this name is better suited to the Eucharist than to any other, because it is primarily the Eucharist that brings this communion about.’ (CCC, 950)

“Communion of charisms. Within the communion of the Church, the Holy Spirit ‘distributes special graces among the faithful of every rank’ for the building up of the Church. Now, ‘to each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.’ (CCC, 951)

“‘They had everything in common.’ ‘Everything the true Christian has is to be regarded as a good possessed in common with everyone else. All Christians should be ready and eager to come to the help of the needy . . . and of their neighbors in want.’ A Christian is a steward of the Lord's goods. (CCC, 952)

“Communion in charity. In the sanctorum communio, ‘None of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself.’ ‘If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.’ ‘Charity does not insist on its own way.’ In this solidarity with all men, living or dead, which is founded on the communion of saints, the least of our acts done in charity redounds to the profit of all. Every sin harms this communion.” (CCC, 953)

Have a blessed week everyone!

More than Just Food for the Soul
The account of Jesus' feeding the 5000 is the Lord's only miracle that is recorded in all four of the Gospels. Obviously, the leaders of the earliest church were convinced that particular miracle from Jesus' public ministry needed to be passed down to the Church of all ages and that includes us! As magnificent and impressive as this miracle is, it portrays much more than Jesus' "muscles and might." It shows our total dependence upon the mercy of God to meet even our simplest needs, the compassion of God to respond to those needs. This miracle feeding teaches us also, that we must play a part in any miracle God works. Our faith is the beginning, offering whatever we might have comes next, and then God will begin to work. Without those few loaves and fishes, how many would still be hungering?
