Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Praying for Peace

Locally and nationally, the news is not pleasant. We hear and read about cases of violence perpetrated by individuals motivated either by race, gang affiliation and sometimes just plain senseless and unexplainable reasons. Life is no longer treated with the inherent value therein for these individuals who engage in these horrible acts of violence. Yes, there is evil in the world, and we can only counter evil with good. How else does one explain shooting your grandmother in the face and slaughtering innocent lives of kids, in the latest of these episodes. It is hard to make any sense of it all.

There will always be a variety of options about what can and should be done to change this violent trajectory. The debates have been going on for decades and will continue with no end in sight. As a people of faith, and as much as some will dismiss it, we will remain steadfast in praying for peace:

Longing for Peace

“Christ, why do you allow wars and massacres on earth? By what mysterious judgment do you allow innocent people to be cruelly slaughtered? I cannot know. I can only find assurance in the promise that your people will find peace in heaven, where no one makes war. As gold is purified by fire, so you purify souls by these bodily tribulations, making them ready to be received above the stars in your heavenly home.” Alcuin of York

Prayer for Peace by Pope Leo XIII

O Lord, you see how everywhere the winds have burst forth, and the sea is convulsed with the great violence of the rising waves. Command, we beseech you, you who alone are able, both the winds the sea. Restore to mankind the true peace of your Name, that peace which the world cannot give, the calm of social harmony. Under your favor and inspiration may men return to due order, and having ought to be, the love of God, justice, charity toward neighbor, temperance in all desires. May your kingdom come. May all recognize that they are subject to you, and must serve you who are truth and salvation; that without you they labor in vain. In your law is reason and fatherly kindness. You are ever at hand with your strength and your copious power to help man to keep it. Life upon earth is a warfare, but you watch the contest and aid man to conquer. The weak you sustain; the victory crown.

Prayer for Peace by Pope John Paul II

O God, Creator of the universe, who extends your paternal concern over every creature and guides the events of history to the goal of salvation, we acknowledge your fatherly love when break the resistance of mankind and, in a world torn by strife and discord, you make us ready for reconciliation. Renew for us the wonders of your mercy: send forth your Spirit that He may work in the intimacy of hearts, that enemies may begin to dialogue, that adversaries may shake hands and peoples may encounter one another in harmony. May all commit themselves to the sincere search for true peace which will extinguish all arguments, for charity which overcomes hatred, for pardon which disarms revenge.

Have a blessed, peaceful and safe week everyone!

We Will Meet Again

When the living presence of Jesus was taken away from His own, it did not mean they would have less of Jesus. Instead they would have Jesus in a sweeter, more intimate, more divine way. For when our Lord rose up to heaven, He took with Him all their hearts, minds and love. So is it with us. He is gone up to heaven, into the bosom of the Father, into the Father's love, and we ascend up there with Him, resting where He rests. In heaven there is no separation, but one life, one existence, we are one with our Lord as He is one with the Father. And this promised reunion makes every day sweeter. ~H Suso
