TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 28, 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Approaching the Table with Humility

Every Sunday we are invited to the divine liturgy of the mass that also anticipates the heavenly banquet and liturgy. Approaching the table of the Lord, is a response that calls us to be humble realizing as St. Peter says, that we "... ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb."(1 Peter 1.18-19). He is the most eloquent example of this.

"Jesus was born in a humble stable, into a poor family. Simple shepherds were the first witnesses to this event. In this poverty heaven's glory was made manifest. The Church never tires of singing the glory of this night: 'The Virgin today brings into the world the Eternal And the earth offers a cave to the Inaccessible. The angels and shepherds praise him, And the magi advance with the star, For you are born for us, Little Child, God eternal!' (CCC, 525)

"To become a child in relation to God is the condition for entering the kingdom. For this, we must humble ourselves and become little. Even more: to become 'children of God' we must be 'born from above' or 'born of God'. Only when Christ is formed in us will the mystery of Christmas be fulfilled in us. 207 Christmas is the mystery of this 'marvelous exchange': O marvelous exchange! Man's Creator has become man, born of the Virgin. We have been made sharers in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share our humanity. (CCC, 526)

"The book of Revelation of St. John, read in the Church's liturgy, first reveals to us, 'A throne stood in heaven, with one seated on the throne': 'the Lord God.' It then shows the Lamb, 'standing, as though it had been slain': Christ crucified and risen, the one high priest of the true sanctuary, the same one 'who offers and is offered, who gives and is given.' Finally, it presents 'the river of the water of life . . . flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb,' one of most beautiful symbols of the Holy Spirit. (CCC, 1137)

"'Recapitulated in Christ', these are the ones who take part in the service of the praise of God and the fulfillment of his plan: the heavenly powers, all creation (the four living beings), the servants of the Old and New Covenants (the twenty-four elders), the new People of God (the one hundred and forty-four thousand), especially the martyrs 'slain for the word of God,' and the all-holy Mother of God (the Woman), the Bride of the Lamb, and finally 'a great multitude which no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes, and peoples and tongues.'(CCC, 1138)

"It is in this eternal liturgy that the Spirit and the Church enable us to participate whenever we celebrate the mystery of salvation in the sacraments." (CCC, 1139)

Have a blessed week everyone!

The Heart of the Matter

So many people today are troubled by the state of our world. But just what is the source of the problem? That question gets a variety of answers. Some would say that our troubles originate in evil social conditions. Others blame heredity: Still others believe it's a cruel fate. All of these answers share one thing in common: they are all external. Christian faith recognizes that outer conditions make the Christian life difficult. But Christian faith also encourages us to go beyond fixing our outward problems and encourages us to look inside ourselves. Until we deal with our motives, we really are not really dealing with the heart of the matter.

Adoration of the Eucharist is on Mondays from 6 pm – 7 pm.

Come spend some quiet time of personal prayer & meditation in Christ's presence.

Christ is present

“But there is another way in which Christ is present in His Church, a way that surpasses all the others. It is His presence in the Sacrament of the Eucharist, which is, for this reason, "a more consoling source of devotion, a lovelier object of contemplation and holier in what it contains" than all the other sacraments; for it contains Christ Himself and it is "a kind of consummation of the spiritual life, and in a sense the goal of all the sacraments. This presence is called "real" not to exclude the idea that the others are "real" too, but rather to indicate presence par excellence, because it is substantial and through it Christ becomes present whole and entire, God and man.” (MF 38-39)

Cristo se hace Sacramentalmente Present

Estas varias maneras de presencia llenan el espíritu de estupor y dan a contemplar el misterio de la Iglesia. Pero es muy distinto el modo, verdaderamente sublime, con el cual Cristo está presente a su Iglesia en el sacramento de la Eucaristía, que por ello es, entre los demás sacramentos, el más dulce por la devoción, el más bello por la inteligencia, el más santo por el contenido; ya que contiene al mismo Cristo y es como la perfección de la vida espiritual y el fin de todos los sacramentos . Tal presencia se llama real, no por exclusión, como si las otras no fueran reales, sino por antonomasia, porque es también corporal y substancial, pues por ella ciertamente se hace presente Cristo, Dios y hombre, entero e íntegro.” (MF 5)
