Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The Holy Trinity and Family life

On this Sunday when we celebrate the mystery of the Most Trinity, we have an opportunity to see family life from the perspective of the relationship of the three persons in One God. The life and union of the Trinity should inspire family life and relationship.

“The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit. In the procreation and education of children it reflects the Father's work of creation. It is called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ. Daily prayer and the reading of the Word of God strengthen it in charity. The Christian family has an evangelizing and missionary task. (CCC, 2205)

“The relationships within the family bring an affinity of feelings, affections and interests, arising above all from the members' respect for one another. The family is a privileged community called to achieve a ‘sharing of thought and common deliberation by the spouses as well as their eager cooperation as parents in the children's upbringing.’(CCC, 2206)

“The family is the original cell of social life. It is the natural society in which husband and wife are called to give themselves in love and in the gift of life. Authority, stability, and a life of relationships within the family constitute the foundations for freedom, security, and fraternity within society. The family is the community in which, from childhood, one can learn moral values, begin to honor God, and make good use of freedom. Family life is an initiation into life in society.(CCC, 2207)

“The family should live in such a way that its members learn to care and take responsibility for the young, the old, the sick, the handicapped, and the poor. There are many families who are at times incapable of providing this help. It devolves then on other persons, other families, and, in a subsidiary way, society to provide for their needs: ‘Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained from the world.’ (CCC, 2208)

“Human communities are made up of persons. Governing them well is not limited to guaranteeing rights and fulfilling duties such as honoring contracts. Right relations between employers and employees, between those who govern and citizens, presuppose a natural good will in keeping with the dignity of human persons concerned for justice and fraternity.”(CCC, 2213)

What Does the Trinity Mean to Us?

"We believe in one Father": Yet look at the world and see what we accept and who we reject, who we love and who we hate. With such division and derision, can we really believe that we all are children of one Father? "We believe in one Son": Yet walk through the streets and see the starving, the homeless, the sick, while others live in luxury or excess. Do we really believe they all have the same Brother as we? "We believe in one Spirit": Yet watch those who give selflessly in compassion, while others sit idle and carefree. Are we really hearing and serving with the same Spirit? To believe in the Trinity is not to believe in a thing, an object, a model, a definition or an idol. To believe in Trinity means to believe in action, in dynamic revolutionary force, in a power that can change the face of this earth. And if this belief does not bring that change, that power, that force into your own heart, why do you say you believe?

"There is a particular need for clarity with regard to the specific functions of the priest. He alone, and no other, as the tradition of the Church attests, presides over the entire eucharistic celebration, from the initial greeting to the final blessing. In virtue of his reception of Holy Orders, he represents Jesus Christ, the head of the Church, and, in a specific way, also the Church herself" (53).

"Hay una necesidad particular de claridad con respecto a las funciones específicas del sacerdote. Sólo él, y ningún otro, como atestigua la tradición de la Iglesia, preside toda la celebración eucarística, desde el saludo inicial hasta la bendición final. En virtud de su recepción del Orden sagrado, representa a Jesucristo, cabeza de la Iglesia, y, de modo específico, también a la Iglesia misma» (53).
