Spiritual Agriculture

Think back to a time you were crawling through a spiritual valley. God seemed far away and your prayers bounced off the ceiling. Then unexpectedly you received encouragement from some friend or family member. Perhaps they shared Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not unto your own understanding." Whatever they said, the Word went straight to your heart and took root. As you pondered, you noticed the seed of hope beginning to grow. That encouraging friend was a perfect example of the seed sower in Jesus' parable. And like those good friends, we can all be sowers of love, faith, hope, encouragement. We don't have to know how prepared a heart is for God's seed, we just need to scatter. The rest is up to the Holy Spirit—and a better farmer you'll never meet!

Giving Heads Up!

A workday is in the works for a Saturday in August. Be ready to volunteer to help when a date is settled on.

Coffee & Donuts are served, in the school cafeteria, every Sunday immediately following mass. Join others in fellowship.

In a particular way, the Christian laity, formed at the school of the Eucharist, are called to assume their specific political and social responsibilities. To do so, they need to be adequately prepared through practical education in charity and justice. To this end, the Synod considered it necessary for Dioceses and Christian communities to teach and promote the Church's social doctrine. # 91 on these happy occasions and always.

Let us Pray:

God, eternal shepherd, you tend your Church in many ways and rule us with love. You have chosen your servant, Erik Pohlmeier, to be a shepherd of your flock. Give him a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care, may he continue to build your Church as a sign of salvation for the world.

Heavenly Father, give our bishop holiness of life and wisdom to direct and guide our diocesan family so that we may grow in your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
