Changing for the Better
 Is it possible for you to picture yourself beholding the face of Christ transfigured, atop the mountain? Behold Him, adore Him -your brother, your Savior, your friend! As you look at that face in adoration and worship, God's grace transforms you from a separated sinner to a beloved son or daughter. That is the way it is with all who dare to come close to Christ hearts open to accept the brilliant warmth of His love. He changes lives. But like those three disciples, we can't always remain in cozy and inspiring worship. We must leave the mountain to go into the valley of our work and home. Go boldly from that mountain top knowing that coming close to Christ changes your life. He has set you free, made you His friend. He is at every moment changing you into His likeness. Go now, and shine for Him!

“The wonderful works of God among the people of the Old Testament were but a prelude to the work of Christ the Lord in redeeming mankind and giving perfect glory to God. He achieved His task principally by the paschal mystery of His blessed passion, resurrection from the dead, and the glorious ascension, whereby "dying, he destroyed our death and, rising, he restored our life.” (SC # 5)

“Dios obró en el pueblo de la Antigua Alianza, Cristo la realizó principalmente por el misterio pascual de su bienaventurada pasión. Resurrección de entre los muertos y gloriosa Ascensión. Por este misterio, "con su Muerte destruyó nuestra muerte y con su Resurrección restauró nuestra vida. Pues el costado de Cristo dormido en la cruz nació "el sacramento admirable de la Iglesia entera". (SC# 5)
