Little Things Do Count!

Fraud, embezzlements, lying, and injustices of every sort seem all too prevalent today. Christians, however, must not be among the perpetrators of such sinful actions. How we act in our daily dealings with others is of great importance to our Lord. Jesus wants us to be faithful to God and faithful to others. Jesus wants us to be honest. Honest toward God and others. The clue to living a righteous life seems to be making us accountable and truthful in all our relationships. We begin by being faithful and honest in what we might call the "little things." If we, with God's help, will discipline ourselves to shun so-called "little white lies" small thefts, minor breaches of trust, petty digs at another's character, tiny lapses in morality, we will be strengthened when it comes to larger tests of character. The Lord indicated that faithfulness and honesty in the little things prepares us for faithfulness and honesty in the major crunches of life.

Beginning October 1st, there will be a calendar insert of the month's happenings for your reference. Please take a bulletin on Sundays. It contains updates on upcoming events.

Beginning Sunday, October 1st, a 9:30 am Spanish Mass will be added to the mass schedule here at Holy Rosary.

I'm slowly learning Spanish. I started with burrito and now I'm up to tequila. Olé!

“Rightly, then, the liturgy is considered as an exercise of the priestly office of Jesus Christ. In the liturgy the sanctification of the man is signified by signs perceptible to the senses, and is effected in a way which corresponds with each of these signs; in the liturgy the whole public worship is performed by the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, that is, by the Head and His members.” (SC #7)

“Realmente, en esta obra tan grande por la que Dios es perfectamente glorificado y los hombres santificados, Cristo asocia siempre consigo a su amadísima Esposa la Iglesia, que invoca a su Señor y por El tributa culto al Padre Eterno” (SC #7)
