True Love

Do you ever wonder why, if people have heard and sung and read about love all their lives, they can't seem to ever become proficient at it? Could it be that we are convinced love is just about how we feel? Or perhaps that we believe that love comes naturally given the right circumstances. It's just that circumstances haven't been too favorable lately. Well, in Matthew 22:34-46, Jesus tells us clearly that love is a commandment not a feeling. It has little if anything to do with how others treat us or if we have had enough sleep. It doesn't matter how we feel, or who happens to be making life difficult. Love is a product of being obedient, teachable, and practice... practice...practice.

Next weekend Daylight Savings Time ends!

Holy Rosary is forming a new Knights of Columbus Council. The Round Table Organizational Meeting is Thursday, November 16th at 7:00 pm in the school cafeteria. Membership is open to all men 18 and over. All current Knights and those interested in becoming one are invited & encouraged to attend.

OTHER NEWS & EVENTS

The Diocese of Saint Augustine treats all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and deals with all allegations in a prompt, confidential and thorough manner. To Report Abuse, call: Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator (904) 262-3200, ext. 129, or the Department of Children and Families at 1-800-96-Abuse (800) 962-2873.

La Diócesis de San Agustín le da seria consideración a toda acusación de mala conducta sexual y dispone de todos dichos casos de manera pronta, completa y confidencial. Para reportar tal abuso, llame a: Coordinador Diocesano de Auxilio a Víctimas (904) 262-3200, ext. 129 o Departamento de Niños y Familias del Estado de la Florida 1- (800) 962-2873.

““Extreme unction," which may also and more fittingly be called "anointing of the sick," is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as any one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived” (SC, # 73).

“La "extremaunción", que también y más apropiadamente puede llamarse "unción de los enfermos", no es un sacramento sólo para aquellos que están al borde de la muerte. Por tanto, en cuanto alguno de los fieles comienza a estar en peligro de muerte por enfermedad o por vejez, ciertamente ya ha llegado el momento propicio para que reciba este sacramento” (SC, # 73).

November 18-19—Black Catholic Heritage Days of Reflection

Discover the origination of the black Catholic heritage of the Catholic Church through a day of reflection with music, a historic timeline, evangelization efforts and the saints. The event will close the following day on Nov. 19 at 11:00 a.m. Mass celebrated by Bishop Erik Pohlmeier. Space is limited. Registration is open through Nov. 10. Please email favorse@aol.com or call (904) 768-9934. Leave your name and which parish you attend. Activities will take place at Christ the King, 742 Arlington Road N., Jacksonville, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Nov. 18.

November 5-11

National Vocation Awareness Week

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God’s call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life. For more information, contact Father Clay Ludwig by emailing fr.clayludwig@dosaf1.com.

November 4—Let It Shine Fall Concert

Performing are the St. Joseph Adult and Children's Choir and the St. Joseph School Choir with Violinist Helen Morin and Accompanist Melaine Staples. The concert is at 7:30 p.m. at the main church of St. Joseph, 11757 Old St. Augustine Road, Jacksonville 32258. The concert is free but a goodwill offering benefitting the St. Joseph's Music Ministry will be taken up during the program.
