

Holy Rosary Catholic Church

whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

Follow the leader

Mimicry is a great teaching tool. From our first game of "Follow the Leader" to corporate training videos we learn by imitating. Watch and then do. It's not just the easiest form of training, it's often the best. Our cluttered, noisy minds are hushed while the eyes take in information and our bodies simply repeat what we see. And statistics have proven that this "mindless" repetition yields faster, more efficient results. Imagine what this can mean in our spiritual life. Pick the right leader and you'll follow a godly, righteous path at an amazing pace. Pick the wrong guide and you'll be halfway down the road to perdition before your mind engages. It's something Jesus warned His disciples about again and again. Leaders are only human and they can fail just as those who follow do. To ensure we follow the right path we must not merely open our eyes, but listen with our spirit and think with the mind God gave us. And keep watching the best trainer: Jesus. If we keep our eyes on Him we'll always be following the right leader, no matter who's on the road directly in front of us.

Adoration of the Eucharist

Time change: Mondays, 5-6 pm.

Think I'm sarcastic?
Watch me pretend to care!!!

Coffee & Sweets are served in the cafeteria after the 11:30 mass. Join others in fellowship.

“Matrimony is normally to be celebrated within the Mass, after the reading of the gospel and the homily, and before “the prayer of the faithful.” The prayer for the bride, duly amended to remind both spouses of their equal obligation to remain faithful to each other, may be said in the mother tongue. But if the sacrament of matrimony is celebrated apart from Mass, the epistle and gospel from the nuptial Mass are to be read at the beginning of the rite, and the blessing should always be given to the spouses” (#78).

“El matrimonio normalmente se celebra dentro de la Misa, después de la lectura del evangelio y de la homilía, y antes de “la oración de los fieles”. La oración por la novia, debidamente modificada para recordar a ambos cónyuges su igual obligación de permanecer fieles el uno al otro, puede recitarse en la lengua materna. Pero si el sacramento del matrimonio se celebra fuera de la Misa, se leerán al comienzo del rito la epístola y el evangelio de la Misa nupcial, y la bendición se dará siempre a los cónyuges” (#78).

November 5-11 - National Vocation Awareness Week

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God’s call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life. For more information, contact Father Clay Ludwig by emailing fr.clayludwig@dosafl.com.

November 25—Priests vs. Seminarians Volleyball Game

All are invited to the inaugural Priests vs. Seminarians Volleyball Game on Saturday, Nov. 25, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., at the San Juan del Rio Parish Gym. This is a fun opportunity for families to enjoy fellowship with our diocesan seminarians and priests. There will be cornhole and other yard games as well as food provided courtesy of the Knights of Columbus. Please RSVP to vocations@dosafl.com.
